

BISON and Blockpit: Partnership for simplified crypto tax reporting

- Cooperation offers automated and legally compliant tax reporting for cryptocurrencies
- All BISON customers get a 15% discount on Blockpit licenses as part of the partnership

Stuttgart, December 3rd, 2024 – BISON, the award-winning retail trading platform of Boerse Stuttgart Group, announces a new partnership with Blockpit, a leading crypto tax reporting platform. This collaboration aims to provide BISON customers with a simple and reliable way to meet their cryptocurrency-related tax obligations.

As cryptocurrencies become increasingly popular, tax transparency has become a key concern for investors. BISON's existing info report already provides a detailed overview of all transactions, including indicative calculations of realized profits and losses - a feature highly valued by its customers. Through this partnership, BISON enhances its offering by enabling the creation of legally compliant tax reports. By integrating Blockpit into the BISON app and web application, users can ensure transparent tax documentation for their cryptocurrency holdings, simplifying and optimizing the tax reporting process. BISON customers also benefit from time and cost savings, with seamless transaction history imports for generating automated tax reports and a 15% discount on Blockpit licenses.

"Taxes on cryptocurrencies can be complex. At BISON, we are committed to providing our customers simple, secure, and reliable solutions. Partnering with Blockpit, a leading provider in crypto tax reporting, is a logical step forward. Thanks to this collaboration, we deliver real added value to approximately 870,000 BISON customers by significantly reducing the tax-related challenges of crypto trading," commented Ulli Spankowski, CEO and Co-Founder of BISON.

Florian Wimmer, CEO and Co-Founder of Blockpit, added: "We are thrilled to partner with BISON, a leading trading platform 'made in Germany' that stands for simple, reliable, and secure cryptocurrency trading. This partnership allows us to make crypto tax reporting simpler and more accessible to a broader audience."

The Blockpit integration is now available in the BISON mobile app and web platform, enabling users to get started with just a few clicks.
